Denton County Criminal Law Attorney: Jeffrey Hines

Jeffrey is now in his 38th year of practicing law, Jeff has acquired the tools to advise his clients on the many options available to dispose of their cases and the advantages and disadvantages of each. During your initial consultation and representation, you can expect to be advised of certain steps to drastically improve the outcome of the case on a trial or plea bargain. Clients appreciate his individual attention while deciding the best strategy for resolving their issues.

A criminal conviction can mar your reputation, credibility and relationships with other people. That's on top of serious legal consequences that could include heavy fines, license suspension, jail or prison time and other penalties. If you have been arrested and are facing criminal charges, it is imperative for you to seek professional legal counsel and representation from a reputable criminal defense attorney.

At Hayes, Berry, White & Vanzant, LLP, we hold fast to the legal standard that people facing criminal charges are innocent until proven guilty. Our firm's criminal lawyers are well versed in formulating sophisticated, solid defense strategies to provide the best possible outcomes in our clients' cases. Whether you've been stopped for a DWI, accused of a drug-related offense or charged with any other crime, we'll give you the comprehensive support you deserve.
